2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Burnfort National School is a Catholic co-educational primary school with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of Bishop William Crean.

“Catholic Ethos” in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Burnfort National School shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

The school aims to promote the full and harmonious development of all pupils: cognitive, intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual, including a living relationship with God and other people and promotes a Christian philosophy of life. Our school provides Religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and promotes the formation of the pupils in the Catholic Faith. It also seeks to work with the families of pupils of other religious traditions to provide for the faith development needs of such pupils in appropriate ways.

We respect and develop the uniqueness of each child so that he/she will value his/her self-worth and so become a responsible citizen. We endeavour to create a suitable atmosphere where social skills are developed thus enabling the child to co-operate in a group situation. We wish our school to be regarded as a place where each child is cherished and valued and individual talents are nurtured and where every child is afforded the opportunity to reach his/her full potential. We welcome the co-operation of parents/guardians and facilitate their participation when appropriate. We aim to understand the home circumstances and personality of each child. The school is regarded as an extension of the home and an active partnership between parents/guardians and teachers makes this a reality, especially in the eyes of the young child, who is the central figure. We believe that parental interests and attitudes to school, to books and to education are a most important influence on a child's learning. Close contact is maintained between school and home. Parents/guardians and teachers support one another and collaborate with one another in leading the children to the fullness of their potential at the different stages.
